QuickScreen360

ADDITIONAL TERMS

Article 1

These terms represent the QuickScreen360 Additional Terms (hereinafter: the Additional Terms) as referred to in the Terms of Service and shall apply in addition to the latter in the contractual relationship between the Provider and the Client with respect to the web-based application QuickScreen360 (hereinafter: the Application).

In the event of any conflict between these Additional Terms and the Terms of Service, the Terms of Service shall prevail unless expressly stated otherwise herein.

The original language of these Additional Terms is English. The Provider may make available translations for convenience only. In the event of discrepancies, the English version shall prevail.

Article 2

Terms defined in the Terms of Service have the same meaning when used herein. In addition, the following capitalized terms shall have the meaning assigned to them below:

Application
The web-based software solution enabling the Client to perform the following activities in relation to its business partners or other relevant third parties:

i. Screenings

Screening of companies and individuals against sanction lists, politically exposed persons (PEPs) databases, watchlists, blacklists, and adverse media sources;

ii. Risk Assessments

Risk assessments relating to:

- the countries in which a business partner is registered or operates (including corruption, human rights, and environmental risks); and
- the nature and type of the business activities conducted by the business partner;

iii. Outreach

The structured outreach to business partners or other third parties, including:

- Questionnaires, allowing the Client to create, distribute, manage, follow up on, and collect responses to structured information requests; and
- Certifications, allowing the Client to distribute content and, optionally, e-learning materials, and to monitor acknowledgment, participation, and completion.

Business Data

Any data, documents, or information relating to the Client, its business partners, or other third parties, entered into or processed through the Application by the Client or by authorized Users.

Standard Content

Policies, documents, content, or e-learning materials provided by the Provider within the Application and considered Materials under the Terms of Service.

Client Content

Any policies, documents, content, or materials uploaded or created by the Client within the Application, including content used for Outreach or Certifications, and considered Client Data under the Terms of Service.

Article 3

Screenings, Risk Assessments, and Outreach activities are performed solely on the basis of the Business Data entered into the Application by the Client or authorized Users.

Business partners or other third parties to whom the Client sends a Questionnaire or a Certification and who do not yet hold an Account are provided with their own Account; those who already hold an Account receive the Questionnaire or Certification in that existing Account. In either case, they use the Application as Clients under the Terms of Service, in particular its Article 3.5, and these Additional Terms. Responding to Questionnaires and completing Certifications received from other Clients is free of charge.

The Application provides access to various external databases used for Screenings and Risk Assessments. An overview of active and inactive databases is made available within the Application.

The Application is offered on a usage-based, credit-based model. The consumption of Credits is required for specific functionalities and actions within the Application, as defined in the Price Document and in accordance with Article 5.3 of the Terms of Service.

Article 4

Client Content remains the sole responsibility of the Client. The Client retains all rights, title, and interest in and to its Client Content. The Provider does not review, validate, or warrant the accuracy, completeness, or legal adequacy of Client Content.

Standard Content is provided for general informational and compliance-support purposes only. The Provider does not warrant that Standard Content complies with the legal or regulatory requirements of any specific jurisdiction or is fit for any particular purpose. The Client remains solely responsible for determining whether Standard Content is appropriate for its intended use.

Article 5

The Provider does not warrant the completeness, accuracy, or timeliness of external databases or sources used for Screenings and Risk Assessments.

All Screening and Risk Assessment results are provided for informational and decision-support purposes only. The Client remains solely responsible for:

- interpreting results;
- making business or compliance decisions; and
- ensuring compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

The Provider does not guarantee that any content, templates, or training materials meet the legal or regulatory requirements of any specific jurisdiction.

Any Certifications generated through the Application are technical confirmations of completion, acknowledgment, or participation only and do not constitute a legal certification, audit opinion, or regulatory approval.

Article 6

The Provider may modify these Additional Terms in accordance with the modification clause set out in the Terms of Service. Any such modifications shall apply prospectively.
